Please send completed information sheet and accompanying materials to the WGS Executive Committee Faculty Liaison, Melissa Hughes, at hughesm@cofc.edu

Name: _____

Department: _____

Email Address: _____

Please describe your engagement with WGS since affiliating with the program, with regard to the following:

Have you taught WGST 200 or affiliated courses? If so, please provide the courses and semesters.

Which WGS events have you attended and/or helped organize? Please describe your contributions to these events.

Have you mentored WGS students? Briefly describe the project(s) involved.

Have you engaged in any service or activism related to WGS? Please briefly describe.

Please describe any other contributions you have made to the WGS program not captured above.

Briefly describe (500 words or less for each) how your current or future teaching, research, and/or mentoring experience align with the mission and goals of the WGS program. (You do not need to provide a description for all categories.)

Teaching:

Research:

Mentorship:

Service/activism:

Faculty affiliates of the WGS program are expected to teach courses for the major and minor when feasible; mentor WGS students and supervise students' independent work when appropriate; attend and, if possible, help organize WGS-sponsored lectures and events; and volunteer to serve on the WGS Executive Committee if possible.

Over the next 5 years:

Would you be willing to teach WGST 200 (Introduction to Women's and Gender Studies)? If so, in what up-coming semester do you anticipate doing so?

Please describe how you may be able to serve the WGS program, including but not limited to service on WGS committees, such as the Executive Committee, Assessment and/or Special Projects.

Do you have any suggestions for special events or courses for the program?

Please attach a current CV.
